

Interior Design

Description

Explore your creative talents through Interior Design at Tulsa Tech. The Interior Design program will prepare you for careers in the industry. As you investigate the field of interior design, you will focus on space planning, elements of design, decorating, and furnishings through appropriate computer software and decorative techniques. You will become skilled in lettering, orthographic drawing, and various visual presentations. The course will include outside elements that affect housing choices and landscaping.

- Explore your creativity working with a variety of design materials, finishes, & resources
- Gain knowledge in housing styles, architectural drafting, & design concepts
- Meet professionals from the design industry through field trips & guest speakers
