

Tulsa Tech Real Estate Broker Licensing Course Description

Brokers Licensing Course

This course prepares the student to sit for the Oklahoma State Real Estate Brokers Licensing exam. A broker license allows a person to do business as a firm and sponsor licensed associates (provisional sales associates, sales associates or broker associates). The broker will be responsible for activities of their associates. In order for an applicant to apply for a broker license, the applicant must be of good moral character, possess two (2) years of active experience, or its equivalent, as a PSA or SA within the past five (5) years, and submit evidence of successful completion of seventy-five (75) clock hours of advanced real estate instruction in a course that is approved by the Oklahoma Real Estate Commission (OREC).
